Continental, elegant gourmet wine

 Assembly
Tempranillo (88%), Graciano (9%), Cariñena (3%)

 Region:
Pais Vasco

 Appellation:
D.O.C. Rioja

 Wine estate:
Remírez de Ganuza

 Vinification
21 months of ageing in American and French oak barrels, 1/2 of which is new oak.

 To serve
18°C in a large glass.

 Storage potential
Drink as from : 2024
Best moment : 2026-2029
Until : 2033

 Trial analysis
Elegant, refined and complex. Traces of evolution in the colour and in the nose. A meaty, fleshy tempranillo with southernly notes and yet a Burgundian touch. A terroir wine.

Description domain

Great wines are made in the vineyard - in Rioja too. Fernando Reminez de Ganuza has an open mind and a passion for the vineyard. When he walks in his vines, which is very often, he sees details others would not notice. This makes all the difference, and you can taste it in the wines, especially when there is a 20 year-old vintage in your glass.
