

Mas d'en Caçador 2022 Familia Nin i Ortiz - 75 cl.

Mas d'en Caçador is a single vineyard wine coming from a classified high altitude vine in Porrera. The 1.5 hectare parcel is located at 650 meters above sea level, which makes it one of the highest of Priorat. The total production is only around 1,500 bottles.

Vinification

The whole bunches, only partially de-stemmed, are fermented with natural yeasts for 4 weeks in a large vat. The wines then ripen for 16 months in a 2.700 litre French oak vat. No filtration and a minimal dose of sulphur added before bottling.

Storage potential

Drink as from: 2026
best moment: 2030-2033
Until: 2039

To serve

Between 16 and 18°C in a large Burgundy-style glass.

Trial analysis

The deep colour of a young wine. Very open on the nose, this cuvée seems fresher than La Coma d'En Romeu, maybe because the vine is oriented more to the North. Nice expression of the slate soils. A spicier style, but a very classy wine, complex and with a very long finish.

Wine style:

Mediterranean, elegant gourmet wine

Assembly

Garnatxa (60%), Cariñena (40%)

Region:

Catalunya

Appellation:

D.O.Q. Priorat

Wine estate:

Familia Nin i Ortiz

Description domain

One of the smallest estates in Priorat. Ester Nin is the oenologist of Clos Erasmus. She founded her own estate with husband Carles. They make very elegant and pure Priorat wines, with a minimum of sulphur.
